

How to Polish those Great Ideas

Good writing is the product of good reading. Good ideas are worthless if they can't be communicated clearly. Once you write your good ideas down make sure they are understood and polished. Try to the following when completing your creative writing:

Steps to Fixing Writing Errors:

1. Automated Grammar and Spelling Check¹

Read the explanations

2. Proofread yourself:

Check for content

Remove errors created by automated check

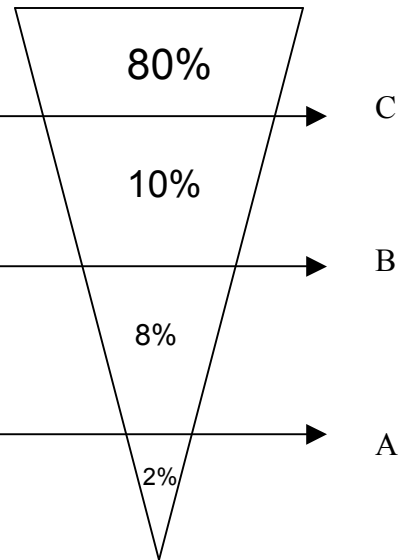

3. Ask another person to proofread:

School services (faculty, writing help)

Friends, girlfriends/boyfriends

Someone who has completed the class

4. Proofread yourself:

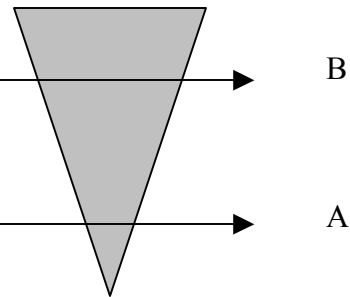

Steps to Perfecting Presentation:

1. Add presentation-formatting

2. Leave it alone

3. Review the formatting

¹ When running any grammar and spelling check read the explanation and suggestions carefully. If you just click the fix button, you do not learn how to avoid the problem in the future.
